To Parents/Carers of all Pupils

Dear Parent/Carer,

After School Clubs Selection

Many thanks to everybody who responded to our After School Club Survey. We are delighted to be able to confirm that we will be offering after school clubs for sports, craft, drama as well as outdoors / Forest school.

All clubs will run on a Thursday after school, beginning on Thursday 6th June and will run up to and including Thursday 11th July.

The clubs will be inclusive and run by members of our support staff who will use their wide and varied skills and interests to motivate and engage our children.

Once your child has chosen the club they wish to attend, they will need to remain with that option for the rest of the term. Places at clubs will be limited and so to ensure fairness, places will be allocated on a termly basis. This term will be a pilot and inform our future planning.

Activities will be risk-assessed for the named children participating and this risk assessment will be on-going and dynamic. Whilst the clubs will be led and managed by our existing staff who know our children well, if there is any factor which impacts safety in any respect then your child may not be able to attend club or you may be asked to collect them early. We will always inform you of any issues arising, just as we would during the usual school day.

Children will be given a healthy snack and a drink at the end of the school day before club starts at 3.15pm, or alternatively they may bring a snack and drink from home to eat and drink on club night.

Pupils will need collecting at 5.15pm from school, please advise transport where applicable. We hope you are as excited by this development as we are. We look forward to this new venture and look forward to getting our clubs up and running!

If your child would like to attend one of the clubs, please complete the attached permission form and return to Mrs Edwards on Reception by Friday 17 May 2019.

We will confirm your child has been successful in securing a place by Friday 24th May 2019.

Yours sincerely
