

My Child is Learning: Autumn Term 1 (Cycle B)		Amber Class		MEDESHAMSTEDE ACADEMY
English The Firework Makers Daughter, by Philip Pullman - historical fantasy fiction exploring resilience, challenge and personal growth Reading: Exploring settings, character and events in a range of different texts; Deciphering meaning from captions and illustrations in texts Speaking and Listening: Participate in group discussions about shared or familiar events, respecting turn taking conventions and showing active listening; Recounting past events to peers in a logical sequence Writing: - Writing short narratives or recounts of personal experiences or familiar events with accurate use of paragraphs, correct spacing and punctuation; practising use adjectives to add detail; refining personal, legible style; ensure consistency of slant, pressure and spacing. 		Maths Knowing that numbers up to 10,000 have thousands, hundreds, tens and ones Recognising that each digit has a specific place value Understanding that larger numbers follow the same structure as smaller numbers Recognising that numbers can be compared beyond 10,000 Knowing that the highest place value determines magnitude Knowing that numbers can be ordered sequentially Understanding roman numerals and how they are used in a range of contexts Developing skills in rounding and estimation Practising the use of the column method Knowing that regrouping is needed when totals exceed 9 Understanding that subtraction finds difference Knowing to use decomposition when needed Understanding that multiple strategies can be applied		Arts Artists: Edgar Degas, Pablo Picasso, Jean-Michel Basquiat  Using different methods, scale and colours to express different moods with increasing levels of accuracy. Key Skills: Confidently apply perspective and movement, using detailed shading and varied tools and techniques Use colour expressively and intentionally, selecting appropriate palettes and paint types.
Careers Developing Work Skills and Behaviours: setting targets and goals Knowing that people work in many different types of jobs Understanding the different ways that many jobs help the local community Recognising that anyone with the right skills and training can do any job Understanding that goal setting helps to achieve things that are important Exploring the different pathways that people choose as they grow up		Physical Education Basketball Practising skills in: Throwing Catching Dribbling Bouncing Shooting Pivoting Attacking Defending 		Food Technology Hygiene and Food Safety Understanding safe hand washing Safe use of equipment Knowing the different between raw vs cooked foods Understanding hazards in the kitchen – e.g sharp, hot
Life Skills Cleaning products and using cleaning tools safely  Understanding why cleaning is important for health and safety Identifying different types of cleaning products and knowing their uses Understanding the hazards and safety symbols on different kinds of cleaning products Identifying different types of cleaning tools and knowing their uses Learning how to use a Hoover, iron and other cleaning tools safely Understanding how cleaning is applied in everyday environment Knowing how to clean safely and effectively using different tools and products		Humanities British History: The Tudors Kowing who the first Tudor king was and how he became King. Knowing who Henry VIII was and at least two reasons why he is historically important. Understanding the key ways Henry VIII changed how the churches worked. Exploring the key reasons why Henry VIII got married six times and knowing who his wives were. Understanding the key reasons why the Tudor period ended and who the final monarch of the Tudor period was
Science Muscles and Bones Knowing the names of common muscles and bones in the body Recognising the similarities in skeletons of different living things Understanding how muscles contract and relax in order to move bones Knowing that muscles pull on bones to create force Recognising that different joints have different functions Learning how to exercise safely and recognising which muscles/bones are the strongest		Relationship and Sex Education Online and Media Identifying and recognising harmful online content Being aware of and understanding age restrictions on computer games Knowing how information is shared further online and the impact this has Understanding how to avoid scams online Knowing some of the features of online manipulation		PSHE Developing Personal Identity Recognising patterns of behaviour Learning how to accept differences in others Recognising different types of personality Understanding the ways personality traits influence behaviour Knowing how to develop positive behaviours and habits Recognising the different ways stereotypes and bias affect relationships and wellbeing	